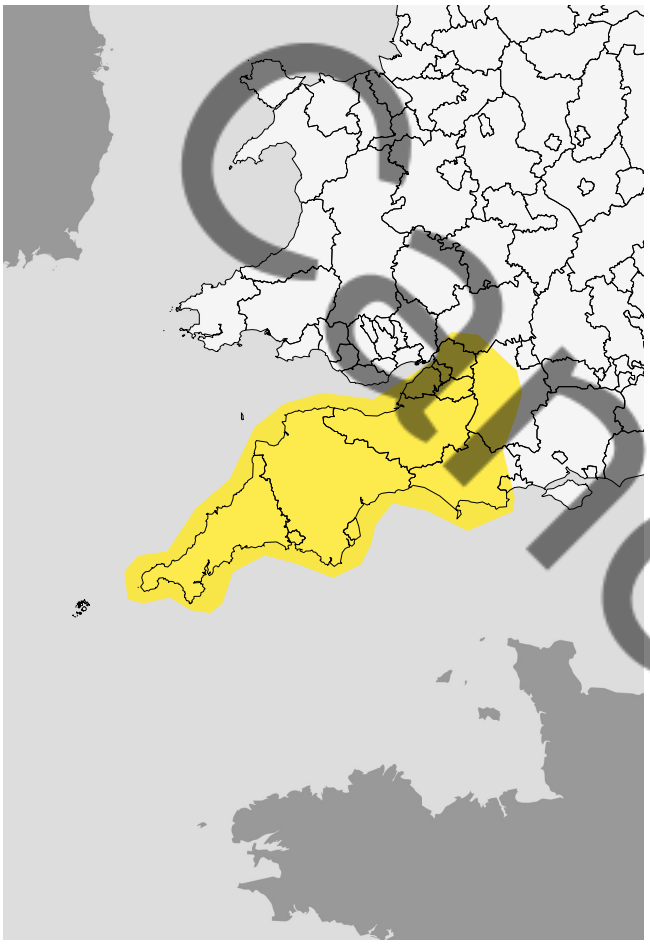
Yellow warning
Rain

Between
00:00 Wed 27 Dec 2023 and
15:00 Wed 27 Dec 2023



Heavy rain brings the potential for disruption to travel and a risk of flooding.

What to expect

- Flooding of a few homes and businesses is likely
- Bus and train services probably affected with journey times taking longer
- Spray and flooding on roads probably making journey times longer
- Some interruption to power supplies and other services likely

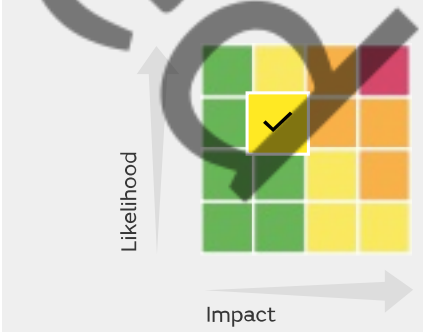
Cancelled

Further details

Outbreaks of heavy rain will move northeastwards across southwest England during Wednesday. Across the warning area 15-25 mm of rain is expected to accumulate quite widely. Across south facing slopes of Dartmoor and the Dorset Downs, there is a chance of 30-50 mm during this period. Strong winds will likely exacerbate any impacts from the rain.

What should I do?

Check if your property could be at risk of flooding. If so, consider preparing a flood plan and an emergency flood kit.



✓ Medium likelihood of low impacts

Give yourself the best chance of avoiding delays by checking road conditions if driving, or bus and train timetables, amending your travel plans if necessary.

People cope better with power cuts when they have prepared for them in advance. It's easy to do; consider gathering torches and batteries, a mobile phone power pack and other essential items.

Be prepared for weather warnings to change quickly: when a weather warning is issued, the Met Office recommends staying up to date with the weather forecast in your area.

Reason for cancellation

The expected amounts of rain have reduced since the warning was first issued, with impacts no longer considered as likely.
